

UC Rally Committee Meeting Agenda: September 15th, 2010

Welcome!

Freakin' rocked it at the game!! Loudest fans there, got it pumped up!! Touchdown Mondays! were freakin' INSANE, and we've got a Friday night game under the lights coming up in Nevada. Aw yeah, it's going to be an awesome weekend!

Slide Show

The Historians recapped our beat down of Colorado, as well as the insanity that was Haas Lock-in. Yoga at 4AM in the Club Room? It happened. Sleeping? Not so much... Check out the UCRC Historian Facebook for all the awesome photos from the past week! Be sure to check out Photo Contest Winner, Regina Clincy's AMAZING shot of the Cannon firing! Its a thing of true beauty captured on film.

Sports!

Sadly the lovely ladies of the Women's Volleyball team are on the road, and so much find others to help with their shagging. Sad, I know. BUT! Never fear, because soccer comes home this week, and the beautiful men of the Water Polo team return to the Spieker Aquatics Center. Be there, ladies, and watch them swim...in their little tiny speedos.

Friday:

W Soccer vs. USF, 4 PM, Edwards Stadium

Saturday:

M H2O Polo vs. Pomona, 8 AM, Spieker Aquatics Center
Field Hockey vs. Pacific, 12 PM, Maxwell Family Field

Sunday:

M H2O Polo-NorCal Tournament, Spieker
W Soccer vs. Pacific, 1 PM, Edwards
M Soccer vs. USF, 3:30 PM, Edwards

Viewing Party

First the ladies of the Volleyball team, and now Football, seems like everyone is on the road this week! Join Jenny and the rest of the Committee for the season's first Viewing Party! When the Bears aren't playing in Memorial, we get together at an Older Member's house or apartment to cheer our boys through the TV. Jenny is hosting this week, and its a Pot Luck, so bring something tasty and gather at her place THIS FRIDAY at 6:40P!!!!. Kick-off is at 7PM against the UNR Wolfpack.

E-mail Jenny at ucrc.communityrelations@gmail.com with any questions!

Membership

Scavenger Hunt

Have you ever scavenged? Been asked to look for a blue coffee mug in the “Only Red Things” store? If you, you’ll find the annual UCRC Scavenger Hunt to be a refreshing update on an old game. Meet Jackson and the rest of the Older Member Squad at Kroeber Fountain at 11AM on Saturday, September 18th. Bring your cameras, you’ll need them to document the shenanigans!

E-mail Jackson at urcr.memberevents@gmail.com with any questions.

Lands End

As Jenny announced last week, this Saturday is also the Lands End Beach Clean-up and Stewardship Project! If you’re not partaking in the Scavenger Hunt, or want to help preserve an amazing beach just north of SF, come out this Saturday, September 18th, and pitch in! As of now, Jenny will be leading the group over to the beach by means of public transportation, but is people could drive, that would be awesome. Regardless of how you’re getting there, meet Jenny this Saturday at 11Am on Sproul Plaza (near Telegraph) to head out to the beach!

Please e-mail Jenny at ucrc,communityrealtions@gmail.com with any questions or if you can drive!

Teams!

Not that we haven't had our fair share of bonding activities thus far, but the Membership Branch is starting up the annual UCRC Member Teams! The teams are not only an awesome way to bond with an Older Member, as well as your New Member peers, but are the foundation of many epic team competitions and incidents of tom-foolery. Trust me, you don't want to miss out. Last year, there was a team "Urban Dino Squad," and it more than lived up to its name.

If you're interested in signing up, e-mail Jenny @ ucrc.communityrelations@gmail.com or find her after the meeting! You'll be asked to fill out a brief questionnaire and the teams will be announced in the next few weeks!

Walking Groups

Live in the dorms? Hate walking places by yourself? Wish you had an awesome gang of folks to walk places with?!?!? Then sign up to either be a part of a Walking Group OR to serve as a Walking Team Leader! Jenny is looking for 2 people per dorm building to serve as leaders of the Walking Groups, which not only assure that no one walks home alone at night, but also serve as an awesome way for y'll to bond like electrons!

If you’re interested in either being part of a group or serving as a leader, e-mail Jenny at ucrc.communityrelations@gmail.com!

Iron Bears

Iron Man- one of the world’s most brutal and physically demanding tests of physical fitness. Few try it, and even fewer finish. Iron Bears- the world’s most epic and fantastical non-athletic athletic event. Many try it, few make it through the Eggnog Mile in one piece.

Jackson will be hosting this event as one of the first inter-team competitions, more info the closer we get to the epicness that will be Iron Bears.

Member Dues

If you want to still join, see John after a meeting, or e-mail him at ucrc.treasurer@gmail.com

Card Sorting

Get out and sort!! Just because football is out of town until October, doesn't mean that you can't go and kick it in Memorial Stadium!! In fact, what better time to hang out there than during Card Sorting, where you get cheesy sticks, a nice view of Rugby practice and a chance to kick it with Kendall Plant, the stunt master herself? So come out to Card Sorting next Wednesday, September 22 from 2-5PM at Memorial Stadium!

E-mail Kendall at ucrc.stunts@gmail.com with any questions.

Marketing

Website!

Sadly, Sasha's computer is in the midst of major technical difficulties, meaning that our lovely website will not be updated for a short while...BUT! In the mean time, be sure to check out the Facebook, which will list all of our major events! Invite your friends, floor-mates and acquaintances to our upcoming events!

TDM

So like I said before, football is away this week. Sadness. BUT! That doesn't mean we aren't having a Touchdown Monday on the 20th!!! Doesn't matter if the Bears are playing at home, or away, every touchdown still counts for awesome discounts! So after you cheer on your Bears at the viewing party, hit up the Cal Student Store or Mario's La Fiesta for 3% off per touchdown. (We've had 2 weeks at 25% off! Knock on wood for more awesome savings!)

SubComms

You come to the events, seen ExComm running around like the insane people that we are, and probably asked yourself, "Gee! That looks like fun, how can I get more involved?" WELL....if you want to partake in the awesome madness that is the planning and preparing for UCRC events, join any of this year's 4 Sub Comms! You'll work with the leader of that position to help them get their events prepped and ready to go!

Rallies

Love Noon Rallies, but wish they were bigger? Then apply for the Rallies Sub-Comm, and help Laurel run the Homecoming Rally, and plan the 113th Big Game Bonfire Rally!

Look for Laurel's application e-mail or e-mail her at ucrc.rallies@gmail.com

Special Events

Night Rallies, Colloquiums, Laugh Your Axe Off- if helping Elise plan some of our most AMAZING events for both Homecoming and Big Game Week sounds AMAZING to you, than the Special Events SubComm is the place to be!

Look for Elise's e-mail or e-mail her at ucrc.specialevents@gmail.com

Historians

Does your camera make your arm complete? Do you hold a black belt in Facebook stalking? Want the chance to get up close and personal with our members and Cal athletes? Then join the Historian Sub-Comm! J-Bear and Dani will be sending out applications following NEXT WEEK'S meeting, so look for their e-mail in a week's time.

Contact them at ucrc.historian@gmail.com with any questions.

Marketing

Matt, Paige and Sasha can't do it alone, and they're looking for you to join the Marketing SubComm! Last year's SubComm designed everything from the Big Game Week t-shirts, to the Bonfire poster, and even the Pyro shirts for the Cannoneers. In addition to creating some awesome art, you'll get a behind the scenes look at how Matt and the rest of the Marketing Branch make the Committee's events known to those both far and wide. Matt will also be sending out his e-mail after NEXT WEEK'S meeting, so look for his at the same time at the Historians.

Contact him at ucrc.marketing@gmail.com with any questions.

Fun Fact!

This week your fearless agenda author and general Cal Fun Fact enthusiast chatted a little bit about why Oski, our perpetual Sophomore and lovably creepy mascot, was the greatest college mascot on earth. He's not an orange, or a leprechaun, or a sad, blatant rip-off of Donald Duck, and his identity is 100% secret. You all know you love him, and what kind of place would Cal be without him?

Closing

We closed with the Stanford Indian Song, one of the more controversial pieces in our repertoire of Cal Songs. Written back when Stanford's mascot was sill Prince Lightfoot, a very un-PC Native American stereotype, the song fell out of use after our rivals changed to being known as the "Cardinal." As of late, the band has revived the playing of the song's chorus, which we sang tonight.

That's all for now, folks! See you next week! Go Bears! Tame the Wolfpack!

-Becca
